Tirzah Price grew up on a farm in Michigan where she read every book she could get her hands on and never outgrew her love for YA fiction: She holds an MFA in Writing for Children Young Adults from Vermont College of Fine Arts and is a former bookseller and librarian. Now she's a contributing editor at Book Riot where she can be found recommending books on the site newsletters podcasts and social media accounts: When she's not writing reading or thinking about YA books she splits her time between experimenting in the kitchen and knitting enough socks to last the fierce Michigan winters..
