

How War Changed Rondo By Andriy Lesiv AKirkusBest Book of 2021: A Best Picture Book for Starting ConversationsA USBBY Outstanding International Book of 2022A Bank Street College of Education Best Book of 2022War has come to the idyllic town of Rondo. He works with Romana Romanyshyn in their personal art studio Agrafka in Lviv Zirka and Fabian live peacefully in the small town of Rondo a magical and joyful place where even the flowers sing! Everything is perfect until the fateful day that War arrives. Their picturebooks The Mitten and The Turnip were included to the White Raven Catalogue 2012 and 2013. The Mitten was also an honorary mention at Biennial of Illustrations Bratislava 2011, Stars and Poppy Seeds was awarded the Bologna Ragazzi Award 2014 in the section of Opera Prima, They also became finalists of the Sharjah Exhibition for Children's Book Illustrations in 2014: Andriy and Romana are considered to be among Ukraine's leading contemporary illustrators. Can three gentle but brave friends stop War's destruction and save their beloved home?Danko.

Andriy Lesiv graduated from the Lviv National Art Academy, Having never experienced War the inhabitants dont know what to do. They try to talk to it and fight it but nothing seems to stop the spread of Wars destruction and darkness. Harnessing the power of light community and song Danko Zirka and Fabian along with all their neighbors must rally together to lead Rondo to victory, How War Changed Rondoreflects the darkness and pain that conflict bring and the wounds that linger long after its over. This picture book serves as a tribute to peace resistance and hope and was written and illustrated by Romana Romanyshyn and Andriy Lesiv a husband and wife duo from Ukraine[1]

Ukraine. How War Changed Rondo

.