.But fate brought them together again.He felt he was not worthy to be in a relationship. Swore he would never marry or have children.Joss had been alone most of her life and was wary also. He doesn't want to want her but he can't help himself. Or can he?Brady. I loved Joss and Brady. Loved them. I loved her passion for Brady. I laughed with her. I cried with her.This part of the story brought some tears to my eyes. God I just loved their whole complicated romance!Joss. Needless to say this was one steamy romantic read. And I think she did. This author has a wonderful voice. I love her dialogue and her character's inner-dialogue. What a storyteller.I first noticed this book the day of its release. I loved the blurb. Built. Light-brown hair kissed by the sun with a hint of blond. All that lean bare muscle. Sex on a freaking stick. And a soldier to boot. Bet he looked seriously fine in his dress uniform. Panties probably dropped at the mere sight - thongs too. Maybe even like the one she was currently wearing.Brady is all kinds of delicious. He's very sexy and very Alpha. He wants a promotion within the Army. He does however believe in lust.Joss is beautiful character inside and out. Poor Joss. However Joss stirs a lot of strange emotions within Brady. He will do whatever it takes to keep up his façade. Honestly. I loved Joss's character. The ONS meet is bit cheesy. The back and forth with the Halloween is just so cute. The story itself is nothing new. Then the groveling. I love good groveling in romance book.
