

The Daintree Rainforest - Far North Queensland - Australia (Around The Campfire, #5) By Jan Hawkins :

Australian Author Jan Hawkins was raised in the Australian bush on the outskirts of Sydney on the Georges River: Now residing in Queensland she spent 20 years in education at secondary level in the IT field. Her love of computers pales in comparison to her love of the Australian bush: She is passionate about the history of her country and a strong desire to discover and experience new places fuels her desire to travel extensively throughout the land, Along the way she relishes being able to listen to people and to share and enjoy the adventure she calls life. Join our Author as she explores the beautiful and ancient Daintree Rainforest of Far North Queensland Australia. It is a world where the Traditional Owners live in a wilderness beautiful beyond description, Living amongst the forest are the creatures of the wild crocodiles and Spirit creatures which roam the remnant of Gondwana in a timeless world, Join us as we take you into the forest and discover this still ancient world together, The Daintree Rainforest - Far North Queensland - Australia (Around The Campfire #5)

. Ancient Lore's govern the land of the rainforest. A place that can be as cruel as it is stunning