it is bad but because it lacks any breathless excitement: Book the funeral owl the guardian The plots and subplots weave together until they are tied up in the end in a way that is perfectly rational but not expected. For the Funeral Owl is said to be an omen of death. A series of metal thefts is plaguing the area. For the Funeral Owl is said to be an omen of death. A series of metal thefts is plaguing the area. I really enjoy reading this series. 9781780290492 Best of series. My favorite book this year so far. 9781780290492 This is far from being a page turner. Early in the book Dryden received a photo from a reader. Kelly has another winner here. If you haven't read Kelt before start at the beginning. A confusing beginning that cleared up eventually. NetGalley/Severn House Mystery. Dec. 1 2013. Print version: 256 pages. 9781780290492 I do really enjoy these characters. They are quirky but entertaining. And yet it is finely crafted. I will seek out and read another Philip Dryden mystery. 9781780290492.
