

Bred to Jump By Pat Smythe : By the time of this autobiography she had detailed her competitive career in Jump for Joy and One Jump Ahead: Book Bred to jumpcloud Pat at this time had settled to breed horses from her first mare Tosca and this book tells of a colt called the Chocolate Soldier and others, Bed jumping 200 benefits Pat also travelled with her husband on his business and reported for the UN on what she saw, Bred to Jump ebooks The second half of this book is composed of such travel descriptions. Book Bred to jumper Pat's final autobiography combines the earlier works and later personal experiences into 'Leaping Life's Fences'[1]

Autobiography and travels of the British female showjumper. Bred to Jump Pat Smythe was a British female showjumper. She also wrote pony books for young people. Bred to Jump

