

Spanking the Secretarys Bottom By Susan Thomas

When Helen takes a job as a secretary at the prestigious Lady Alice school she is shocked and intrigued to discover that the headmaster Dr Croft canes the upper sixth girls. The two become close and Helen soon finds that Crispin canes far harder than Dr Croft ever did! It is not long before she becomes a regular visitor at Crispin's family home: As her fascination with corporal punishment grows she manages to get the headmaster to punish her for her own misdeeds - to their mutual satisfaction. When a lucrative job offer comes up in government Helen takes it and makes the acquaintance of eligible bachelor Crispin. The wealthy upper class family is headed by Crispin's father the General who takes discipline in the family very seriously and does not hesitate to punish unacceptable behaviour. Helen experiences two hard canings and a painful birching at the hands of the General: Yet in spite of the discipline she feels more welcomed and loved by Crispin's family than by her own, As her relationship with Crispin deepens a wedding is on the cards. Spanking the Secretarys Bottom

