I liked the characters and could picture their world. I found this story far better than the first 2. This story was also good. You look around you and everything looks dead. Hmm food for thought. I really liked his character. He's what I like to refer to as flawed perfection. I was right. Parks This is a Paranormal Fantasy Romance Anthology. It features 4 different Authors telling one story. I have never read a book written in this manner. I do have to say that I was pleasantly surprised. I gave this book 5 stars. The characters were realistic and likable. Parks Elementals was a wonderfully unique reading experience. It moved quite fast. Each Elemental has a story to tell. This is their story. Each story is short but packs a punch. I loved reading how Aria found her forever love. Anne L. Four men who have vowed to protect them. One mother's quest to destroy them. Experience the power of love in season. Enter Bear Glenn. As simple as a goddess in hiding can that is. William Varian is an ancient soul. It's her darkness that Morpheus is drawn to. He finds the girl of his dreams inside hers. It can save them too. She currently resides in the Washington D.C area. And drinking wine. She currently resides in the Washington D.C area. And drinking wine. Two other series are being planned. The stories are about the four daughters of Mother Nature. Each daughter is a season spring summer winter and fall. We start with The Prophecy (Spring): Sister Aria. This story was told by Author Anne L. Parks. I loved this sister I do believe she was my favorite. Kept me wanting more. I didn't want this part of the story to end. Next was Bayou Bleue (Summer): Ete' and Bear. Author Annie Rose Welch. Not just skimming the top and giving you shallow characters. This was no different. Ete' was a bit more fiery than Aria. In the end it does make them stronger being a unit. But these are some very strong very amazing sisters. Connected Souls (Fall): Autumn and William's story. Author Lashell Collins. I had the hardest time connecting with Autumn. But she isn't like that at all. Stubborn and pig headed yes. She is set in her ways. But she stays strong and continues to live her life. She easily became a favorite as I read her story. This story brought me the most sadness. Author Dina Haynes. Wyn doesn't need a man. Although she does have one. She is one of the strongest ones. She feels the weakest and she lets that hold her back. But once she realizes she can do anything. A strong family bond. This story was amazing I loved every part of it. It flowed well and had me wanting more. Thank you for a great story. Anne L. "I will carry out my plan Ambr and you will assist me. I need my daughters—all four Elementals—here. Together." I drag the last words out giving them dramatic flare. "Fates Luna moon stars—I don't care. I just want you where I can see you." He drops his head so our eyes meet. A side note I absolutely loved their names. This book is broken up into four parts. A part for each Elemental... and their manly man. Therefore there were different writing styles for each part. It was well written right up to the last word. Recommendation I would recommend this read to any fantasy readers. The four daughters of Gaia Mother of All. Mother Nature. God. She has many names. And we are her Elementals. Anne L. Now onto the nitty-gritty. Anne L. Each daughter is assigned a protector. Eiden is called to protect Aria goddess of Spring. Her story is about finding balance. William has been Autumn's protector lifetime after lifetime. Pushed to breaking Wynter lashes out. With each chapter the desperation escalates. You know there can not be a peaceful solution. I did receive a copy in exchange for my review. Anne L. Parks Gaia is the Mother of All; she is Mother Nature. At least that is what Gaia thinks. Her plan starts with the murder of the seasons. her own daughters. As the Munson's learn of the plan.
