

State of mind take control

States of Dan and Lia Perjovschi accompanies the mid-career retrospective of the work of Romanian artists Dan Perjovschi and Lia Perjovschi at the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University. State of mind take control Both born in 1961 and educated in Romania Dan and Lia Perjovschi create work that resides at the nexus of art society and politics; both artists belong to the first avant-garde movement following the 1989 Romanian Revolution. States of mindray Lia Perjovschi was recognized as one of the most significant performance artists in Romania between 1987 and 2003 when she stopped performing and is now known as a conceptual artist analyzing cultural and historical formations. State of mind book This richly illustrated book contains more than 300 images (including 180 in color) of paintings sculptures drawings photographs videos installations and conceptual art from 1986 to the present as well work from a recent installation of Dan Perjovschi's at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. State of mind ventures It also contains an original text by the artists "AutoChronology" which is a timeline of their life to the present and the most comprehensive bibliography on the artists to date. List of states of mind Three essays discuss the a substantial survey text by art historian and curator Kristine Stiles the leading scholar on the Perjovschi's art; another by Romanian-American author and National Public Radio commentator Andrei Codrescu; and a third by the Romanian scholar curator and recipient of the 1996 Carl Einstein Prize for Art Criticism in Germany Marius Babias. Scary states of mind books Publication of the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University States of Mind: Dan and Lia Perjovschi

Carolee Schneemann is a multidisciplinary artist whose painting photography film video performance art and installation works have been shown at the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles the Whitney Museum of American Art the Museum of Modern Art in New York the Centre Georges Pompidou (Paris) the National Film Theatre (London) and Anthology Film Archives (New York). States of Mind kindle cloud She is the recipient of a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Womens Caucus for Art and the author of Imaging Her Erotics More Than Meat Joy and Cezanne She Was a Great Painter among other publications. States of mind boccioni Carolee Schneemann is a multidisciplinary artist whose painting photography film video performance art and installation works have been shown at the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles the Whitney Museum of American Art the Museum of Modern Art in New York the Centre Georges Pompidou (Paris) the National Film Theatre (London) and Anthology Film Archives (New York). States of mindoula She is the recipient of a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Womens Caucus for Art and the author of Imaging Her Erotics More Than Meat Joy and Cezanne She Was a Great Painter among other publications, State of mind public Dan Perjovschi is internationally renowned for large-scale drawing installations commenting on current events cultural paradoxes and art world institutions and practices. 50 states of mind book The catalog includes interviews with each artist by the Romanian-American art historian and curator of photography at the Museum of Modern Art Roxana Marcoci and by Kristine Stiles. {site_link}.