Through the influences of St Alban St Illtud St Ninian St Patrick and later St Augustine St Aidan and St Cuthbert the Church of England developed acknowledging the authority of the Pope until the Reformation in the 16th century. It resulted in a Church that consciously retained a large amount of continuity with the Church of the Patristic and Medieval periods in terms of its use of the catholic creeds its pattern of ministry its buildings and aspects of its liturgy but which also embodied Protestant insights in its theology and in the overall shape of its liturgical practice. What has remained constant however has been the Church's commitment to the faith 'uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds' its maintenance of the traditional three fold order of ministry and its determination to bring the grace of God to the whole nation through word and sacrament in the power of the Holy Spirit,

The religious settlement that eventually emerged in the reign of Elizabeth I gave the Church of England the distinctive identity that it has retained to this day, The way that this is often expressed is by saying that the Church of England is both 'catholic and reformed.' The changes that have taken place in the Church of England over the centuries have been many and various. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com. {site_link}
