Unable to take up her place at Oxford university as her father forbade it-can you imagine that happening nowadays?! So it was no wonder she arrived miserable and distant. The bomb girl brides daisy styles But Maggie was my favourite Bomb Girl and her journey to her dream wedding was full of emotion and hilarity especially when it came to planning the wedding breakfast which involved a secret mission to provide the "piece de resistance". The bomb girl brides daisy styles I thoroughly enjoyed becoming involved in their emotionally rewarding and uplifting storyline and look forward to meeting the girls again soon! Daisy Styles I read this on the Kindle This is the 4th in the series I really enjoyed the book not only for the story but the way it is written i like Daisy Styles writing she make the story so your drawn in which not all writers do even if they have a great storyline This tells more about the lives of the girls at the bomb factor in Lancaster & you have a new girl Julia who is not a working girl but as the girls puts it a posh toff The book ends in June 1944 so i hope there will be another book to take it to the end of the war A great read Daisy Styles.
