

Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty Museum By Thomas Kren PDF Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty museum This volume showcases full-color reproductions of masterpieces by Niccolo da Bologna Pisanello Girolamo da Cremona Taddeo Crivelli Giovanni di Paolo Matteo da Milano Antonio da Monza and the Master of Gerona among a number of Italy's finest illuminators. Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty Museum book The selection includes multiple illuminations from such sumptuous volumes as the Montecassino Breviary the Gualenghi-d'Este Hours the Missal of the Anti-Pope John XXIII and the recently discovered Orsini Missal along with exceptional leaves from the celebrated choirbooks of Santa Maria degli Angeli Florence and from the laudario of the Compagnia di Sant'Agnese Florence:

Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty museumjaarkaart

The Getty Museum inaugurates a new series of affordable publications that introduce the public to the richness of its holdings in illuminated manuscripts: Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty museumbola The first in the series features Italian manuscript illumination from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries. Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty Museum.