This is a great book for a nice refreshing drink and quiet time. The story flowed well with real emotion and situations without being draining, Exactly what I need which is why I gave it five stars, I wouldn't have minded a quick epilogue with all the family together as they welcome another baby into their family. It's nice to have a quick escape. My only con lol. They live in the house that Shelby grew up in. All comes to a head when Luke returns. This is a good read. Would recommend. Read with a warm cup of tea and a fuzzy blanket. Perfect for a rainy day. She went against her mother's orders and ended up pregnant. Ten years later he returns and the fun begins. teresasouthwick.com. Emma was so strong willed and cute at times.
