A fast paced domestic drama/thriller. Kindle Edition This is a brilliant read. Mark and Hannah met one night. Two completely different kind of people. They fell hard for each other. Then things started changing and not fit the better. You just need to read this for yourself. Absolutely loved this story. Can't wait to read more from this author. and the Alliance of Independent Authors. and the Alliance of Independent Authors. I read it in one sitting and really enjoyed it. One of the best thrillers so far this year. This story tells the tale of Hannah and Mark. They met in a bar. They fall in love pretty quickly and get married. But their relationship goes downhill almost from the start. When the book opens Hannah and Mark are in jail. So are we the readers. I will say. and this is not a spoiler. The characters are both deeply flawed. The book gets into the weeds on that subject. Hannah also has her issues. I really like her style of writing. So this is a retelling through most of the book. someone is dead. Unfortunately this book failed to deliver what was promised. I listened to the audiobook. 2 stars rounded up. Kindle Edition Meh. Yes. I said "Yes. "Yes. "Yes. "Yes. I was hooked from the very first page. I am not going to give anything away. Hanna and Mark fell in love as soon as they meet. It was an instant connection. My favorite book so far by this author! Kindle Edition.
