Already planning on re-reading this asap. Can't recommend this beautiful book more 304 Okay 4.7...As before her words MOVE me. A sense of calm and wonder. For me this is one of those books. It's also an homage to food. Oh my. Tuscan sunlight pouring into rooms. Canned produce lined up waiting for winter. Her olive grove and the oil it produces. I can't wait to try out her ragu. She gets personal in other ways too. How she survived sheltering at home during the pandemic." How very true. Lots is lists of foods and flowers. In this world of every day stressors I needed this book. Pleasant reading but nothing special. Includes recipes and gardening tips or struggles. I like the easy but descriptive way this author writes. 304.
