.But she is much more than just a surrogate.Neat turn on the previous story.I really enjoyed following along the characters. Loved Jeb and Kelly. Kelly.

Wolf's curvy surrogateg guide

Figuring Out the Future . Jed is a wolf shifter who lives on a ranch. His son and girlfriend died in a car accident. Kelly actually had lived next door to Jed's family. Kelly told Chase the pushy developer to leave. But she was struggling. Then Jed came back to talk to her. He had realized she was his mate. In this one.The I don't want a mate plot is repeated. The girl has reason to not trust the boy. There is nothing here that feels like fate. In addition facts change without warning. The editing isn't great. The characters' financial situation makes no sense. And the characters are forgettable.It makes no sense for the guy to be a billionaire. She is a chef with a Michelin star. 27. Which she would know how to do.Ugh! I hate that the heroine is so helpless. And the girls are isolated. Plus he discovers something else Kelly is his fated mate.Ms. This story has heart drama secrets and passion. This is the story of Kelly and Jeb. He wants another child but not a mate.I'm a single wolf shifter cowboySuffering from a broken heart.Until I made a curvy discovery.I've changed since those days so I offered to help. There was only one problem... well maybe two. Sparks fly between her and Jed when they talk. There's also something else she is his fated mate. This is a well written and very entertaining story. I would recommend this book to any book lover.I love that these two started out on the wrong foot
