

The Frank W. Angel Report on the Death of John H. Tunstall By David G. Thomas The Report documents the events leading to Tunstall's murder - the testimony of the men present at the brutal killing - including Billy the Kid's eye-witness account - and the violent consequences that followed:

"In the matter of the cause and circumstances of the death of John H. " So begins the single most important contemporary document recounting the origins of the Lincoln County War. That document is the "Report of Special Agent Frank Warner Angel on the Death of John Henry Tunstall" known today to historians as the "Angel Report: " The 395-page hand-written Report that Angel submitted on October 3 1878 on Tunstall's unprovoked sadistic murder is published for the first time after 144 years in this book: It includes sworn accounts by William "Frank" Baker Robert W. Dolan William Dowlin Pantaleón Gallegos Godfrey Gauss Florencio Gonzales John Hurley Jacob B: Supplementing the Report are an extensive introduction notes contemporary documents associated letters biographical details and a timeline. The book also reveals the brazen attempt by two powerful politicians - Thomas Catron and Stephen Elkins - to destroy the Report depriving history of its priceless contribution, TunstallThis is an absolute must read as well as a must for the personal library of any scholar of The Lincoln County War, 9781952580079
