

Ask a Missionary: Time-Tested Answers from Those Who've Been There By John McVay Ask a Missionary: Time-Tested Answers from Those Who've Been There Wonderful! Lots of questions- REAL questions that get at the nitty gritty of life- and great answers from a variety of missionaries. Ask a Missionary: Time-Tested Answers from Those Who've Been There If you are exploring doing something extraordinary for the glory of God among the nations Ask A Missionary will give clarity and answers for a journey into missions. Because they have been there over one hundred missionaries from around the world including Elisabeth Elliot George Verwer Phyllis Kilbourn and Bill Stearns share their insightful wisdom and practical advice on everything from making the decision to go to stepping into a new life once on the field and everything in between. - How can I know if God is leading me to become a missionary? - How do I select a mission organization? - What type of academic or practical training should I consider? - How will I be funded? The treasures amassed in this book will guide you toward serving in the most wonderful challenging God glorifying eternity-impacting endeavor in the world: missions: More useful for those who haven't asked themselves a lot of these questions/those who have been on the mission field before. One definite strength of the book was the variety (even opposition) of opinion--placed next to each other so the reader could judge between them, Ask a Missionary: Time-Tested Answers from Those Who've Been There
