

Worldly Wonder: Religions Enter Their Ecological Phase (Master Hsüan Hua Memorial Lecture) By Mary Evelyn Tucker ,

Worldly wonderer charleston

History illustrates the power of religion to bring about change. Worldly Wonder booklet Mary Evelyn Tucker describes how world religions have begun to move from a focus on God-human and human-human relations to encompass human-earth relations, Book Worldly wonders She argues that in light of the environmental crisis religion should move from isolated orthodoxy to interrelated dialogue and use its authority for liberation rather than oppression, Worldly Wonder booking Worldly Wonder: Religions Enter Their Ecological Phase (Master Hsüan Hua Memorial Lecture)

