A warrior. Death is transition it is change. Some of the writers have contributed prayers and meditations. There are several well-known figures in the contributors list. Even without that however this is still a fascinating book. He died defending Inanna's honor. Inanna is the sister of Ereshkigal.

When Inanna goes to visit her sister who is in mourning. The second story involves an invitation to the Heavens. Namtar her servant is sent up to retrieve her food. Upon hearing this Ereshkigal is enraged. She threatens to let loose the dead. Nergal then sojourns in the Great below for six days. Finally Nergal return and becomes her husband. She is a teacher a tough teacher. In a word she is the Goddess of No. Claimed by Ereshkigal by Janet Munin was pretty good. Ereshkigal's Visit by Belladonna Laveau was really good. I would of enjoyed being there to see it. Mistress of the Shadows. Lady of Bones and Dust. Frightening One of the Far Places Where Men Fear to Go. We invite you to walk this path as well. Ereshkigal awaits
